

PORTO RICAN BILL

Permits Free Importations to the Island of Nearly All the Necessities of Life.

SUMMARY OF THE PRINCIPAL PROVISIONS.

Duties to Cease Soon as Porto Rican Legislature Provides Revenues.

Special Correspondence.

Washington, April 25.—The following is a summary of the principal provisions of the Porto Rican act, which goes into effect May 1st:

From the date of the passing of the act the customs duties are levied on all goods entering Porto Rico from foreign countries as are levied on the same goods entering the United States. The duty on goods entering the United States is to pay a duty of 5 cents per pound on entering Porto Rico. Scientific, literary and artistic works and books and pamphlets printed in the English language may enter Porto Rico free of duty.

All merchandise coming into the United States from Porto Rico and coming into Porto Rico from the United States shall pay 15 per cent of the present Dingley tariff rates; articles of the class which pay an internal revenue tax in the United States must also pay a sum equal to this internal revenue duty, while articles from the United States going into Porto Rico must also be subjected to any internal revenue rates of taxation then collected on that class of articles.

One feature of the act, which heretofore seems to have attracted little attention, is extremely important because it will permit them to import free of any duty nearly all of the necessities of life. Under the orders which the Secretary of War had issued, domestic, codfish, fresh beef, pork, mutton, rice, bags for sugar, cooper's wares and wood cut for making canks for sugar or machinery and apparatus for making and refining sugar or for other agricultural implements not machinery, rough lumber and modern school furniture, crude petroleum, lime, asphalt, kumum, trees, plants and mosses in natural or fresh state, mineral, carbonated and artificial waters, either natural or mineral, root beer, ginger ale, and similar non-alcoholic beverages, and numerous other articles are admitted free of duty and will continue to be so admitted under the act which says specifically that "all merchandise which has been imported into the United States free of duty under orders heretofore made by the Secretary of War shall be admitted into the several ports thereof when imported from the United States free of duty, all laws or parts of laws to the contrary notwithstanding."

It thus appears that the Porto Ricans will, under the new act, receive from the United States free of any duty all of the above important articles in addition to those regularly upon the free list under the Dingley law, while under other articles there will be but 15 per cent or three-twentieths of the regular Dingley tariff rates, and what is equally important, they may put an end to the payment of even this small duty at any time they may desire, since the law specifically provides that these duties shall cease as soon as the Porto Rican legislature shall have provided the necessary revenue for the expenses of the government of the island.

The duties collected under the act are to be placed at the disposal of the Porto Rican government for the government and benefit of Porto Rico until the government of Porto Rico shall have been organized, when the moneys collected are to be turned into the local treasury of Porto Rico. Goods imported from Porto Rico and under bond are to pay only the duty imposed by the act.

The capital is to be at San Juan. Persons who were Spanish subjects April 11, 1899, and who have not elected to preserve their allegiance to Spain, are held to be citizens of Porto Rico and entitled to the protection of the United States.

The laws and ordinances of Porto Rico now in force are to continue except as altered by the act, or by military orders, and which are not inconsistent with the laws of the United States.

The old law forbidding the marriage of priests and ministers is repealed.

The vessels of Porto Rico are to be naturalized and admitted to the benefits of the United States coasting laws. Quarantine stations are to be established. Porto Rico coins are to be re-told, the pieces being rated at sixty cents in the exchange. Three months after the act takes effect Porto Rico coins are not to be legal tender. Property of the United States in Porto Rico and other properties acquired from Spain will be administered by the Porto Rican government. The governor is to be appointed by the President and hold his office for four years, having the powers conferred on governors of territories of the United States, and to make his reports through the Secretary of State to the President.

An executive council appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate, consists of a secretary, attorney, treasurer, auditor, commissioner of interior and education, and five other persons to hold office for four years. The council is to have the power of the legislative body of the United States, and to make his reports through the Secretary of State to the President.

The political indictments returned by the grand jury of the Franklin Circuit Court have not as a rule—been followed by convictions. Hunter, Frank, Wilson, Gaines and Tanner were not convicted; even Sommers failed to be convicted; and the indictment against John W. Whalen died in almost the pocket of "Lorning."

The grand jury will continue its investigations; in due time

No export duties are to be collected, but taxes and licenses may be levied.

On the regular election day in November and every two years thereafter Porto Rico may choose a commissioner to represent the island at Washington, salary, $5,000.

A Suggestion to Certain Leaders.

The speedy acquittal of Colonel Colson—received with shouts of applause—is another illustration that indictments do not by any means insure conviction shall follow. Indictments for capital offenses have three effects—one physical and uncomfortable; it secures the possible imprisonment of the person indicted for an indefinite period. It gives the court the power to refuse bail, and thus imprisonment. In law this imprisonment is solely for detention, not for punishment. Legally it is a formal charge by the grand jury upon which trial by petit jury is to be had. In law it does not even raise the presumption of guilt. The party indicted is by the law and in the law still presumed to be innocent. He is only an accused citizen—not even prima facie a guilty citizen. If a trial officer upon the character and standing of the accused depends wholly upon accompanying and incidental facts and circumstances; it may injure, it may aid the accused; it may be accepted as a stigma, it may be accepted as a honor.

John C. Breckinridge, Simon Boliver Buckner, Richard Hawes, George W. Johnson, Hardin Belmont, Crispin Wickliffe, and scores like unto them, were indicted for treason; and indicted by the most respectable courts; but the indictments left no stain on their lives or reputation. It is an unpeepable outrage to wrongfully indict an innocent man—knowing him to be innocent; it is a heinous crime to use criminal machinery of the law for any other object than to punish the guilty.

The published report that Governor Taylor has been indicted has not, we presume, affected the opinion or judgment of a single human being—either in or out of the state. It is used to justify bitter utterances against Kentucky like unto the example we cut at random:

"KENTUCKY CIVILIZATION."

"The public was not surprised by the announcement that Governor Taylor has been indicted as an accessory before the fact for the murder of Wm. Greobel. There would be little surprise, as things go in Kentucky, if he should be found guilty. This does not mean that the general public believes him guilty and has condemned him in advance. It simply means that the public has lost faith in Kentucky politicians of both parties, and even in the justice and impartiality of the courts. The public has lost faith in the people of Kentucky."—Indianapolis Press.

The indictments returned will be tried, and at those trials the testimony upon which they were based will be made public and by the tribunal at whose bar all are finally tried—the bar of public opinion—judgment will be rendered.

The political indictments returned by the grand jury of the Franklin Circuit Court have not as a rule—been followed by convictions. Hunter, Frank, Wilson, Gaines and Tanner were not convicted; even Sommers failed to be convicted; and the indictment against John W. Whalen died in almost the pocket of "Lorning."

The grand jury will continue its investigations; in due time

POSTOFFICE ROBBERED.

Safe Blown Open and Two Hundred and Forty-five Dollars Taken.

THE SWAG MOSTLY IN STAMPS.

Standing Reward Offered by Government for Apprehension of Robbers.

Tuesday morning about 1 o'clock thieves blew open the safe at the Earlington postoffice and took all the valuables they saw, amounting to $245.36, nearly all of which was in postage stamps. Postmaster Robinson had just received $500 worth of the new stamps in books and these were in the bottom of the safe under some books, hence were not discovered and escaped the robbers.

Entrances was effected through the rear window and a crew bar, flag-staff and shovel were brought from the tool house where Section Foreman Henry keeps the railroad tools. These were left near the work site. The crack around the door was jammed up with clay and nitroglycerine seems to have been used, as no powder marks were discernible.

The bottom of the safe was burst through in the center, the door stripped and the sides spread. Clay was blown into all the lockboxes standing opposite.

Section Foreman Henry says the door to his tool house was entered by some who had a key. The door was found locked after the tools had been taken out to the postoffice.

The office clock stopped at 1:06 a. m. The piece of the iron safe was blown upward and penetrated the roof ceiling of the room. Atty. Jeremiah A. Jenson has a room over the postoffice but he was absent on a business trip to Greenville. Lacy Parrish, local manager of the telephone exchange, also occupies a the public will know what indictments have been and are to be returned. Gov. Taylor will not fail to face the accusation and confront the courts.

We have no information as to when or where these trials will be had or before whom.

If the Supreme Court refuses jurisdiction or affirms the judgment of our appellate court and Gov. Taylor is indicted, it will consolidate the Republican party, will heal the irreparable divisions in Louisville and Kenton and will bring out every Republican; it will do far more. It will obliterate every other issue from the canvass; it will eliminate every national question; it will divide Kentucky sharply on that one issue. "Tens have digested these interesting episodes in British history we will take the liberty of suggesting another profitable reading—Lexington Herald.

room over the postoffice and has the telephone exchange there. He was awakened by the explosion and, true to his vocation, had thunder storms in his mind, so that when he found the door open he was not surprised. He concluded that lightning had struck somewhere near by and after putting up the drops went to sleep again.

Cal Morgan and others heard the explosion but thought it was a gunshot somewhere and could not tell just where it came from.

Postmaster Robinson will not be the loser since he has exercised due care in safeguarding the government property according to all requirements. The loss is the government's.

There is quite sufficient information for some detective work on the case. The government has been offering offer of rewards for various offenses in the robbery line and the amount in this case, as set forth in the postal regulations is $150 for the apprehension of the thief and $50 for the apprehension of an accessory.

Almost Blind.

My little four-year-old girl's eyes were so weak from birth that she could not stand any light at all. Was treated by several physicians without benefit. My neighbors induced me to buy Morley's Sarsaparilla and Iron from Mr. O. Daugherty, Hanco, Ky. Three bottles not only cured her sight, but made her stronger and healthier than she ever was in her life.

GOOD PEOPLE OF EARLINGTON:

We address you through your own paper, THE BEE, believing it to be the surest way of gaining your attention.

We want every reader of THE BEE to know we are anxious to have them make our house their headquarters when in Madisonville. We look upon many of you as personal friends, and feel complimented when you are with us. You have a cordial invitation to leave your baggage with us, whether you are interested in the LOW PRICES we are making on First-class Seasonable Merchandise, or not.

Such prices as 5c. for the very best Apron (Gingham, 5c. for American, Morning, Allen and Gunter & Simpson Prints; 5c. for good, yard-wide Brown Domestic; 5c. for good, yard-wide Bleached Domestic as you ever saw at that price; 12 1/2c. for Feather Ticking, warranted to hold feathers; $1.00 for a genuine Custom Kid Shoe, every style, guaranteed, any size from 2 1/2 to 8 1/2 for Men's Brogans; 45, 47.50 and 48 for Men's All-wool Suit of Clothes, are very seductive, some out of reason, but these are the low prices that confront you in our store. But as we just said, we are anxious to have you stop with us, whether you are in the buying mood or not. When you are in the mood to buy, we will enjoy showing you through our great stocks, make our prices, and let you be the judge. Very Respectfully, Stamp Books.

Postmaster Robinson now has the new stamp books, the 1900 Big announced some weeks ago would be here. They contain twelve, twenty-four and forty-eight pages and are for an advance of one cent over the price of old stamp books. The new stamp books sell for 25 cents, the twenty-four stamp book for 30 cents, and the forty-eight stamp book for 35 cents. The stamps are placed in leaves of six stamps, separated by a thin paper which prevents sticking together. The books are convenient to carry in the vest pocket, and the leaves contain a compendium of postal information which will be profitable to many to whom these books are bound to be popular.

A Woman's Weariness.

Women's sensitiveness makes them subject to more intense weariness than men. The melancholy, depression and exhaustion they suffer is due to sluggish action of their organs, and a system with impurities, poisons the blood and shatters their nerves. Morley's Sarsaparilla and Iron cures the system, revitalizes the nerves and gives strength and energy. Sold by Agents in every town and by Campbell & Co.

GOLD MINES SOLD.

Kentucky and Tahloneka Mining Companies Sold Georgia Properties.

The sale of the gold mining properties of the Kentucky and Tahloneka Mining Company, both of this place, has been consummated. The purchasers have capitulated from Cleveland, Toledo and elsewhere, who have put into the Georgia gold fields an immense amount of money and organized two large companies. Mr. John B. Atkinson is the president of both companies above mentioned, which were organized at this place and had their offices here. Jas. B. Bash is secretary of the Kentucky company and Paul M. Moore secretary of the Tahloneka company.

The work of these companies, which were managed for the most part by Mr. C. J. Norwood who spent some months at Tahloneka, has been successful. The effort was made to make the gold taken as the operation proceeded pay for the purchase of the equipment of the properties. There was a great deal of gold in the dirt run by the Georgia gold fields by the use of a sneller and chlorination plant. These things cost more money than the local companies wished to put into the venture, but the capitalists from Ohio and elsewhere have bought large areas of property and made payments to make the property get their investments back about whole, without profit or loss.

The sale of the Kentucky has been completed and the money paid over. Mr. Atkinson & Co. of Norwood, Ga. has made a good part of the price paid in cash, but there are some deferred payments to make. The property will get their investments back about whole, without profit or loss.

Mr. C. J. Norwood, who has been in Georgia for many years, returned yesterday, after having arranged the final papers in the transaction. Judge W. L. Gordon was made with Mr. Norwood but returned several days ago.

THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1900.

Dr. Will P. Ross, of Madisonville, has yielded to the demands of his friends and yesterday agreed to announce himself a candidate to represent the Republican party at the National Convention in Philadelphia. We are glad to make this announcement. If Dr. Ross wins, the district will be well represented. There is no more deserving Republican, nor more thorough gentleman in the district.

HERE is a rather unique ordinance passed by the city of Madisonville which will not tend to make any smoother the rather story path of the "walking delegate" in Hopkins County:

The City Council of the city of Madisonville do ordain as follows:

"That from and after the passage of this ordinance it shall be and the same is, unlawful for any person or corporation or corporations within the limits of the city, engaged in the business calling, employment or occupation of soliciting or inducing any persons to join or become members of any organization, association, club, lodge or trade union or any body of like character by whatsoever name the same shall be designated, whether said soliciting is for pay or gratis, and irrespective of the object of said association or organization, to ply his or their or its said avocation, calling, employment or occupation of soliciting membership without first obtaining from the City Clerk a license for the term of one year upon the payment of a license fee of twenty-five dollars, which said license shall include but one person so soliciting such membership, and shall not be transferable except upon such action taken by the city council at some of its regular meetings, on application for such transfer. Provided, nevertheless, that no such license shall be required to be obtained by any church or other religious organization nor insurance or investment company or order which are provided for under other ordinances. All license fees collected under this ordinance shall be paid into the city treasury and shall go towards defraying the running expenses of the city government.

Any person or persons, or agent or agents of any corporation or association plying such avocation in violation of this ordinance, without such license, shall be fined the amount of the license for such person so solicited or induced."

ELDER LEE WRITES

From the San Louis Valley in Colorado to Kentucky Friends.

MONTA VISTA, COLO., APR. 14, 1900.
 To THE BEE,
 EARLINGTON, KY.
 On April 10, in obedience to a call from the Christian Church for a protracted meeting at this place, I left your quiet, industrious town and pursued my way to the San Louis Valley of Colorado. Although so far from home I find my heart with the dear, good people of Hopkins county, and take this method of addressing my many friends.

The great steel works of Pueblo, Pike's Peak, Royal Gorge and the many snow-covered peaks of the Sangre de Christo range of mountains came in for their share of attention and study. As I view the many wonders of these ranges of mountains I am not only willing to declare that "the heavens declare the glory of God," but I feel that God's glory and power are here and everywhere manifest. Mont Vista is the most beautiful town I have ever visited. Its name means "mountain view" and is true to the fact. It is situated in the midst of the very level San Louis

THE PERSECUTION OF GOV. TAYLOR.

For persistent, malignant and unscrupulous persecution, that of Dreyfus does not surpass the persecution of W. S. Taylor, elected Governor by the people of Kentucky last November.

The Goebel campaign, during the campaign, paid little attention to Gov. Taylor, but turned their mud batteries on Gov. Brown and his followers. But from the hour the polls closed attacks on Gov. Taylor personally began; on the Governor himself, on his family, on his friends and his associates. No lie was too untruthful, no lie too malicious, and no contumacious to be published broadcast over the state to poison the minds of the people and to reconcile them to forcible removal of their elected Governor.

Frankfort became the very center of these falsehoods, and the channel of communication with the public was the Courier-Journal and Times.

Mrs. Taylor did not escape these slanders. All sorts of stories were invented, and miserable, pitiful spies set upon her to watch her every movement and invent conversations for her.

Wherever Mr. Taylor has gone, these children of Satan—who is the father of lies—have followed him. To his home when he went to bury his brother and sister; to Louisville, when he came to confer with his friends; to Washington, where he went with his counsel, these miserable, penny-a-liners have gone, and they have sought day by day by their innumerable falsehoods to bring the Governor into contempt.

There has been no method in all this baseness; the purpose has been to "hang Taylor and damn the Republican party." The whole conspiracy turns now on convicting Taylor of conspiring to kill Goebel. That was the purpose of that $100,000 corruption fund; that was the purpose of all the stories of alleged confessions published in the Enquirer and the Courier-Journal in turn.

The Associated Press, too, has been used to compass this end. Two weeks ago the Associated Press sent out from Frankfort a palpably false statement giving what the Associated Press said was the testimony of Senator Alexander before the grand jury. It was fiction pure and simple, but fiction with a purpose. The Commonwealth's Attorney, Franklin, made no protest and Judge Cantrell did not threaten anyone with punishment for contempt of court.

The Evening Times published this false and libelous story under glaring headlines, beginning, "Reached for His Gun." It was designed to show that when Goebel was killed, Taylor was waiting for the mind excited state of mind with a pistol in hand.

Senator Alexander denied promptly and emphatically the whole story. It was, he said, absolutely false in every detail; not simply not true, but contrary to the truth. Senator Alexander had not presumed to say to what he did testify before the grand jury, but he has testified before his friends and his associates of what occurred on the day of his assassination he was in the Governor's office in conversation with Gov. Taylor. The shot startled them, but Gov. Taylor was no more excited than Senator Alexander, showed no evidence of the wildness attributed to him by the correspondents, and exhibited no emotion at any time in any way.

This plain, emphatic and complete denial was conveyed to the Associated Press, and it ordered the statement killed. The Times was informed of Senator Alexander's denial, but it failed to make even the slightest correction.

Note now the sequel. Gov. Taylor was not indicted. His enemies were disappointed. The Cincinnati Enquirer recently published what purported to be a dispatch from Louisville, probably written in Cincinnati. That dispatch gave in the language of the law what it was the indictment by the grand jury; it gave what purported to be the vote of the grand jury room for and against the indictment; what purported to be the reason assigned by the two Republicans against indicting—all intended to injure Gov. Taylor and add the assassin's character in their work.

But this is not all. Another Frankfort correspondent pretends to state, and with an air that indicates the information came from someone who imagined he knew the secrets of the prosecution—pretends to state what the prosecution expects to prove. This writer says:

"The prosecution expects to prove by Senator Alexander, of Louisville, that he was in Gov. Taylor's office when the shot was fired; that Gov. Taylor drew a revolver and was out of the office. The prosecution can prove nothing of the kind, for this statement is the one attributed to Senator Alexander two weeks ago by the Associated Press and by Senator Alexander emphatically denied.

It is all a part of the same plot; all a part of the scheme to ruin Taylor by any means within reach. We republished yesterday in the Enquirer what the alleged indictment of Gov. Taylor the story of Mr. James Andrew Scott's visit to Winchester, and his conference with Mr. Witherspoon and Judge French. We would keep all of these facts fresh in the minds of the people of Kentucky. The persecution of Gov. Taylor will yet reach. The people of Kentucky have a passion for fair play. Fair play is the last thing accorded Gov. Taylor by his enemies, but the people will yet be aroused, and it is well for all to keep the record straight.

Let two things be kept in mind: First the testimony on which the prosecution relies to prove by Gov. Taylor's action at the time of the assassination that he had guilty knowledge of the crime, is testimony which, from the nature of the case cannot be given. Second, a grand jury by a vote of 9 to 3 may bring an indictment when the testimony, uncontradicted, would justify a presumption of guilt, but to convict, twelve men on the jury must be convinced beyond a reasonable doubt of the guilt of the accused.

Gov. Taylor's indictment does not rest on these narrow grounds. The case against him has been magnified by all the devices of degraded journalism, but it has availed nothing. If an indictment has been found it will come only through much tribulation, and Gov. Taylor—his enemies having exhausted all the resources of personal and political animosity—will be ready to vindicate his name before an enlightened and a generous people.—Louisville Evening Post.

valley whose altitude is 775 feet. This remarkable valley is 60 miles wide and 12 miles long. It is surrounded by mountains of great height. The Sangre de Christo range stretches out in plain view for 100 miles and their peaks are crowned with eternal snows. Mt. Sierra Blanca, Colorado's largest mountain, is one of the nearest peaks.

Monte Vista, like our town of Earlington, is free from open saloons. Pool-rooms and gambling halls are suppressed and a moral atmosphere pervades the town.

I have met many foreigners but they are as a rule quite intelligent. Some associate the idea of a Kentucky citizen with "six-shooters" and Winchester rifles. One man asked if I could wield firearms as well as "the sword of the spirit." It is sad to think Kentucky has so low a reputation.

I am preaching nightly to good audiences but without much prospect in the way of additions. The church needs instruction and we shall put forth our best efforts to bring results to Him who doeth all things well.

GOOD THINGS!

If you have the palate of an epicure, or a "sweet tooth," each can be satisfied to the full from our shelves and counters, which are Loaded With All the Good Things the Earth Produces.

No more choice and complete line of things good to eat can be found in any store except a large city grocery. That's what ours is. It is not situated in a large city, but it is not in any "hen-coop of a town," and our customers know a good thing when they see it. Hence we are able to carry a magnificent stock of Groceries, and to sell them at close figures. Buy your eating from our shelves, and you will have a good taste in your mouth for a month.

Pritchett.

Mrs. John J. Pritchett died at her home in Madisonville Friday last, aged about 70 years, after suffering from a paralytic stroke for some two years. The remains were interred at Grapevine Sunday afternoon, after funeral services at the family residence.

Ligon-Brown.

Miss Johnnie Brown and Mr. Jas. T. Ligon, both of Earlington, were married at the Christian Church at Evansville, Ind., at 12:30 o'clock Sunday for the season of 1900 and all lovers of handsome horseflesh agree that this section is fortunate in having such a splendid stallion. M. Cain of Morton Gap, owns a beautiful young mare, which is a colt of this stallion. Alalayara, 1872, and attracts attention wherever seen. (George B. McManama, one of the owners of Alalayara, 1872, writes:

"This stallion, Alalayara, sold in 1891, for $7,500, and paid for himself in 1892 and 1893. For four consecutive years his colts have won races that the colts of any other horse living or dead. He is about twenty-five years old now and is strong and vigorous and making a splendid season. Persons who have seen Alalayara say our horse is a fair sample of his size in size, conformation, color and all." See the advertisement on another page.

General Baptist Church.

The General Baptist Church, so we are informed by a member of the board of trustees for the church property, is out of debt and in a flourishing way, the congregation having come out of their struggles in the recent reorganization. The church was organized by Rev. James A. Burden, and about two years ago the modest frame building, which is their church house, was erected on a lot donated by the management of the St. Bernard Coal Company. The deed has been made to the trustees, James A. Burden, Joseph Fox and John Sharp. This is the youngest church in Earlington, but it now has a membership of fifty-nine. Rev. William Childers is the pastor. The congregation is harmonious and in a flourishing condition.

Many so-called "bitters" are not medicines, but simply liquor disguised so as to evade the law. Parker's Kidney Bitters is not one of this class. It is strictly a medicine, acting primarily on the kidneys, liver and bowels, and for the dangerous diseases that attack these organs it is a remedy of the first grade. There is nothing objectionable in its taste. It has a very agreeable flavor and is acceptable to the most delicate stomach. Sold by St. Bernard Drug Store.

Elder Hall.

Legislation for Women.

A league was recently formed in New York for the purpose of promoting legislation to remove certain inequalities from which women suffer. The league is active in various States. The four chief grievances of which complaint is made are those stated by the league: "In thirty-seven States a married mother has no right to her children. In sixteen States a wife has no right to her earnings outside of the home."

In eight States a woman has no right to her own property after marriage.

In seven States there is no law compelling a man to support his family.

MORE GAINED FROM BEEF

Conditions in the Philippines Make the Use of Refrigerated Beef Impracticable.

CATTLE ON THE WOOF NOT AVAILABLE.

A Return Will, Therefore, be Made to the Use of Canned Roast Beef, But Special Precautions Will be Taken to Secure Only Best of the Best Quality.

Washington, April 21.—War department officials have been compelled to resort to the use of canned roast beef for the subsistence of the army in the Philippines. This is due to the fact that it is absolutely essential that the soldiers shall be served with fresh meat, and because of the impossibility of providing refrigerated beef or cattle on the hoof under existing conditions.

Conditions Have Changed.

When the bulk of the army was located near the seashore, and at easily accessible points, there was no difficulty in providing them with fresh meats, but conditions have now changed, and the army is scattered among 100 posts in various parts of the archipelago, a great many of them at considerable distance from the nearest shipping point. There is no cattle available, and the refrigerated beef, which has heretofore formed the principal basis of subsistence for the troops, can not be preserved in good condition long enough to reach many of the island posts.

Canned Beef as a Substitute.

Consequently, it became necessary to look for some suitable substitute, and the American canned roast beef was the only thing found to meet the requirements.

The suggestion for its use came originally from the subsistence officers in the Philippines, and the chief commissary officer at Manila recently culled a requisition for an immediate delivery of about 100,000 cans of roast beef and subsequent deliveries at the rate of about 30,000 cans a month.

Extreme Caution.

Acting Commissary General Weston presented the matter to the secretary of war, with a strong indorsement of the proposition. As a measure of extreme caution, however, Secretary Root decided to get a personal opinion from Maj.-Gen. Otis before taking final action. A cable message of inquiry was forwarded at once, and Gen. Otis' reply has been received.

Decided to Make Adjustment. Its text was not made public, but its general character may be clearly inferred from the fact that instructions have been sent to Col. Alexander, the commissary officer at Chicago, to arrange for the immediate dispatch of a large quantity of roast beef to San Francisco for shipment to Manila by the first available steamer. Special precautions will be taken to secure the best quality of beef and to insure its proper care and preservation at all stages of its long journey to the Philippines.

THE INFUX OF JAPANESE.

Twenty-Two Hundred Young Japs on Board Two Steamers Bound for Seattle.

Tacoma, Wash., April 21.—An officer of the steamship Goodwyn, in from Japan, says that the Japanese liners and Tacoma, now en route, are bringing 2,200 more Japanese to add to those landed at Seattle and Tacoma within the next week or so. Most of the Japanese brought by the Goodwyn are under 25 years of age, and all are of slight physique.

Anti-American Feeling in Japan. London, April 21.—The Daily Mail publishes a letter from Yokohama describing the "growth of anti-American feeling" in Japan. The writer says:

"This development is due to the harsh treatment the Japanese have received in Hawaii and to the belief that the United States will stop Japanese immigration to Hawaii. The feeling is caused to lead to a deplorable war of tariffs and to retaliatory restrictions."

Burned the Benefactor's House.

Atchison, Kan., April 23.—In the district court Thomas C. Woernma pleaded guilty to the charge of burning the costly residence of W. C. Fox, a prominent citizen, and was sentenced to serve 18 years in the penitentiary. He admitted the Fox family had been very good to him, and that he set fire to the house in order to play the part of a hero by rescuing the family and thereby make his employer feel that his kindness had been bestowed worthily. Woernma was a reader of cheap novels.

Col. Colonel a Lion.

Frankfort, Ky., April 24.—Col. David Tolson, who has been confined in the Franklin county jail, which is guarded by the Beckham state troops, and who was acquitted on his trial in the circuit court Saturday, addressed the soldiers Sunday morning in response to an invitation from them. He left for his home in Middleboro Sunday night. His room was crowded with friends who came to congratulate him on his acquittal.

An Extra Call on Dr. Falmagne.

Manchester, April 24.—Rev. Dr. Falmagne, on leaving the church here Sunday, where he had preached, was called upon by an immense throng who had been unable to enter the building, and was urged to speak again. He complied, preaching in the open air.

DR. WILL ROSS.

Hopkins County's Candidate for Delegate to National Convention.

The Republicans of Hopkins County have prevailed upon Dr. W. P. Ross, of Madisonville, to announce as a candidate for delegate to the National Convention at Philadelphia, and yesterday he gave The Bee permission to publish the announcement in today's issue.

Since county chairman John B. Harvey decided, because of sickness, not to enter the race, the Hopkins county Republicans have been on a search for the proper man and have found him in Dr. Will P. Ross, who is able, popular, a gentleman in every particular and one of the most prominent Republicans in the county. He is also quite well known in other parts of the Second Congressional district and will be very much in the sight at the Henderson convention May 7.

Le Grippe coughs often continue for months and sometimes lead to fatal results after the patient is supposed to have passed the danger point. Foley's Honey and Tar affords positive protection and security from these coughs. Campbell & Co.

Excursion Rates To as Well as From the East.

The Rock Island Springs a Surprise On the Colorado Lines at Today's Meeting

(From the Denver Times.)

The Trans-Missouri Committee of the Western Passenger Association is holding its annual meeting at the Brown Palace hotel. A surprise was sprung on the Committee at the morning session, by General Passenger Agent Sebastian, of the Rock Island. Beginning about June 20, the Rock Island will run excursions from Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Omaha to Colorado common points, making a rate of one fare plus $2 for the round trip and return limit of October 31st on the tickets. These excursions will be run as special excursion trains and about the same dates return excursions will be run from Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo to Eastern points, the same rate prevailing. Thus enabling Colorado people desiring to do so to make tourist trips East during the summer, with the same advantages granted Eastern tourists who come West.

We believe thoroughly in advertising. To prove it we are going to give this space for our own purposes.

We have advertising space to sell, and we know it will pay a good return upon the price we charge for it if it is properly used. Our paper goes into the best homes in this community. It has been going week after week and year after year until each issue is welcomed as an old friend of the family.

The news it brings is news of neighbors, of personal affairs in which all have more or less of a common interest. If one of our readers called upon you, a merchant, you would do the best you could to convince him that what you had for sale was the best he could buy. You would show him the new things you had got in recently. You would tell him why he should have them and why they were better than he could procure elsewhere. You probably would make a sale.

Your effort, however, would be confined to one person.

You could tell the same story just as effectively to every reader of this paper in each issue.

You do not believe it would do the same effect?

If you told the story in the same way to the world.

We are ready to do our part to prove it. Do you care to try it?

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE.

It was communicated to American Cattle from an Argentine Herd at Deptford.

Ottawa, Ont., April 21.—Hon. E. J. Fisher, minister of agriculture, received a telegram from Lord Strathcona, Canadian high commissioner in London, stating that the foot and mouth disease discovered in Argentine cattle at Deptford was communicated to them from an Argentine herd being carried by butchers, and therefore there was no necessity for prohibiting the shipment of Argentine cattle.

CHANCELLOR T. MCGILL DEAD.

A busy life in the Public Service of New Jersey ended with the death of the late Chancellor T. McGill.

New York, April 22.—Chancellor Alexander T. McGill died at his residence in Jersey City. He had been ill for about a year, suffering from general weakness from overwork. Last summer he took a trip to Europe, and when he returned his health was thought to be somewhat improved. A short time ago he began to fail rapidly.

Killed in a Drunken Row.

Chillicothe, O., April 24.—James Stewart, a veterinary surgeon, who lived at London, Ohio, this county, was found dead in a street on the east side of this city, Sunday morning, with his head bruised. George Poe was arrested, and confessed that he struck Stewart with a stone in a drunken row and killed him.

Mail Impounded.

Houston, April 22.—Twelve sacks of mail addressed to Francis Truth, the "dying healer," at Boston, who was arrested recently charged with fraud, have been impounded by the United States government under an unusual "fraud order." Many of the thousands of letters contained in the mail sacks carry money for "absent treatment."

Killed by a Bandit.

Eagle Pass, Tex., April 24.—News has reached here of the killing of John L. Cooke, at Acatlan, Oaxaca, Mexico. Cooke was in charge of a railroad construction gang at that place and was standing in a group of six men when a bandit rode up and fired several shots into them, killing Cooke.

Rosenberg Monument Dedicated.

Galveston, Tex., April 22.—The monument erected here through the beneficence of Henry Rosenberg, to commemorate the heroism of the men through whose prison Texas gained her independence from Mexican rule, was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States will meet at Atlanta, Ga., May 17.

FIFTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

In the senate, on the 19th, almost the entire session was devoted to consideration of the Alaska civil code bill. Mr. Stewart (Nev.) delivered a three-hour speech on the mining laws of the United States and their relation to the proposed amendment of Mr. Henssler to the bill. The amendment, in the house, the bill on the civil code bill, occupied almost the entire session, and afforded occasion for a sharp fight between Messrs. Grosvenor (Ct.) and Williams (Miss). Messrs. Stewart was made with the bill, and most of the controversial points were covered.

In the senate, on the 19th, a joint resolution was passed providing for the administration of civil affairs in Puerto Rico pending the appointment of officers under the Puerto Rican government. The resolution was passed by a vote of 72 to 19. The debate on the bill was continued, and the bill was passed by a vote of 72 to 19. The bill was passed by a vote of 72 to 19.

In the senate, on the 20th, the conference report on the Hawaiian civil code bill was passed. The bill was passed by a vote of 72 to 19. The bill was passed by a vote of 72 to 19.

The World's Coal Supply.

Within two years the price of coal in Europe has nearly doubled and economists are deeply interested in this new development. The eventual exhaustion of coal in Great Britain has long been foreseen. The territorial area is small and the activity in mining has been immense. But the coal deposits of the United States are another matter. The anthracite may give out in this country, but practically no limit can be set to the bituminous fields. There is no risk in saying that the production of coal in the United States fifty years hence will be enormously greater than it is now, and it has already passed beyond that of any other nation. Many thousand square miles of our territory are known to prospectors, but are untouched by mining operations. Important discoveries are made yearly. Great coal possibilities exist in the new possessions. The British yield from one small island is an indication of the coal resources of the United States. They reach so far into posterity that no estimate is possible.

American coal this year has been sent to the Mediterranean, and it seems probable that it will hereafter be a considerable article of foreign trade. The supply is so great that the advance in Europe is but slightly reflected in American prices. Though the price in Europe has advanced in so marked a manner the demand there has not been cut off. France, in fact, imported 908,450 tons in 1899 against 708,840 the preceding year. Its imports of coke nearly doubled. A scarcity of coal is reported in France, Germany, Austria and Hungary. The papers of these countries are discussing the subject of relief from America. It is available beyond any doubt. The United States is making great strides in all mining industries, and the European coal famine need pass beyond a certain point. This new phase of the coal question shows the extraordinary place this country has reached in relation to the rest of the world.

PETTINGILL'S AXIOMS.

Business Truths Proved True by a Well Known Advertising Authority.

(From the Boston Herald.)

Familiarity with advertising breeds respect. Some children thrive better than others on advertising. Sledgehammer blows are necessary sometimes, but a delicate, skillful hand at others. It is the knowing when in advertising.

Some people try to do their own advertising who wouldn't dare decide a point of law—one is as difficult as the other.

Some advertising plans are built on sand—others on rock.

According to the plans, foundations and workmanship, so will the finished structure be. Evert your advertising lines carefully—experienced builders.

It is possible to spend too much money in advertising—the well advised advertiser knows the expenditure necessary to procure the maximum result.

Don't spend more money in advertising than you can easily afford. Sharp business competition today necessitates keen wit, foresight and courage. If you intend to advertise, the best advisers will prove the cheapest.

The shrewd business man believes that the laborer is worthy of his hire. Persuasive representatives are not always connected with the most desirable advertising mediums. The selection of advertising mediums is a good test of your adviser. Tell the truth in your advertising. Is the circulation of a publication, or probable buyers advertisers want? Quality or Quantity? A good advertising adviser will save you time, trouble and money. Advertising in publications must be reinforced by proper solicitations and complete plans. A good share of the country's great wealth is yours for asking—if your goods have merit.

The matron of a well known Masonic Home mentions one inmate, seventy years of age, who has been in the infirmary for three years, a great sufferer from indigestion, and has been taking Ripans Tablets about a year and a half and finds them so beneficial that he never without them. He is willing that his name should be used in a testimonial, as it might be of use in persuading some other person to try them. A second old gentleman, in the same institution, eighty-four years of age, has had liver trouble for many years and finds that R-I-P-A-N-S help him very much. They also have two nurses there, one thirty years of age, the other forty-two, both suffer from indigestion, causing headache, depression of spirits and nervousness. They take the Tablets and find them so useful that they always have a package in their pockets. The matron also states that she is forty-five years of age and at times suffers with indigestion, causing pain and paroxysms of belching, and finds that the Tablets are very good indeed and is perfectly willing to have her name used in a testimonial.
